Description :

PDF-45d66 | The world according to David Ives is a very add place, and his plays constitute a virtual stress test of the English language - and of the audience's capacity for disorientation and delight. Ives's characters plunge into black holes called "Philadelphias," where the simplest desires are hilariously thwarted. Chimps named Milton, Swift, and Kafka are locked in a room and made to re-create Hamlet. ... All in the Timing: Fourteen Plays
